We are happy to welcome Gunnar Langfeldt, Ragnar Lund, Erling Rønneberg, and Herman Wiik to our audit staff; and Arnhild Ibsen as our new bookkeeper.

Det glæder oss å ønske Gunnar Langfeldt, Ragnar Lund, Erling Rønneberg og Herman Wiik velkommen som revisor-assistenten og Arnhild Ibsen som vår nye bokholderske.

Copenhagen

We are happy to welcome Jesper Corneliusen, Kai Jørgensen, Emad Mahaini, Benny Munch, Gunnar Sandbjerg Nielsen, Jonny Nielsson, and Carsten Riddersholm to our audit staff, and Judie Pedersen to our office staff.

We also extend a warm welcome to Wendell Harris and Julian Paul, who have transferred from London for six months.

It was a great pleasure to be able to meet Walter Oliphant when he addressed a staff meeting during his visit here on August 15.

The other highlight of the summer occurred on August 29, when our annual dinner-dance was held at Nimb Restaurant in the Tivoli Gardens. The wonderful atmosphere, excellent dinner and dancing, the presence of our guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Mike Voüte (Stockholm), Mr. Don Sneary (Frankfurt) and Mr. and Mrs. Finn Berg Jacobsen (Oslo), and an unscheduled dissertation by Nikolaj Petersen on the subject of "The Partner's Dream," all contributed to a most enjoyable evening.

Our stamina proved considerably greater than that of our band, who left us at about 2 a.m., so for most of us the party continued for a few more hours with similar enjoyment at "The Swinging Palace."

CIVIC ACTIVITIES

Stig-Erik Schaumburg-Müller has recently been appointed to a sub-committee of the Danish Institute's Accounting Principles Committee. The sub-committee will be preparing recommendations on financial statement disclosure and presentation requirements for incorporation in the proposed new Companies Act.

Det er os en glæde at byde Jesper Corneliusen, Kaj Jørgensen, Emad Mahaini, Benny Munch, Gunnar Sandbjerg Nielsen, Jonny Nielsson, og Carsten Riddersholm velkommen til vor revisionsafdeling, og Judie Pedersen velkommen blandt vort kontorpersonale.

Vi byder også Wendell Harris og Julian Paul hjerteligt velkommen, idet de for en 6-måneders periode er overført fra London.

Det var en stor ære for os at mødes med Walter Oliphant under hans besøg her den 15. august, hvor han blandt andet fik lejlighed til at hilse på samtlige medarbejdere.

Af andre bemærkelsesværdige hændelser i løbet af sommeren kan nævnes, at vi holdt vor årlige middag med efterfølgende dans fredag den 29. august på restaurant Nimb i Tivoli. Den dejlige atmosfære, den udsøgte middag og dansen hagefter samt vore gæsters tilstedeværelse, herr og fru Mike Voüte (Stockholm), herr Don Sneary (Frankfurt) og herr og fru Finn Berg Jacobsen (Oslo), og den uventede tale som Nikolaj Petersen holdt over emnet "The Partner's Dream" bidrog altsammen til, at vi fik en vellykket aften.

Vor energi viste sig at være betydeligt større end vort orkester, som forlod restauranten omkring kl. 0200, hvilket betød, at de fleste af os fortsatte yderligere nogle timer under tilsvarende fornøjelige former på "The Swinging Palace".

FAGLIGE TILLIDSHVERV

Stig-Erik Schaumburg-Müller er for nylig blevet valgt ind i en underkomite af Foreningen af Statsautoriserede Revisorers Regnskabsudvalg. Underkomiteens formål er, at udarbejde en brochure indholdende forslag til bedre regnskaber særlig i forbindelse med den foreslåede revision af aktieselskabsloven.

Mrs. Ejner Sondberg and Nikolaj Petersen, author of "The Partner's Dream."

COLUMBUS

Accountants are better than attorneys! AA&Co. personnel thoroughly enjoyed the refreshments furnished by the law firm of Dunbar, Kienzel & Murphy (DK&M) after our men soundly defeated them in the July softball game by the score of 8 to 4. During the after-game party, the gals from DK&M challenged our women to a game to defend the honor of their men.

Well ... August 27 will long be remembered by the distaff employees of DK&M. That's when they were resoundingly defeated (10 to 4) by the women employees and wives of the Columbus office — the AA&COETTS.

Pitcher Penelope Bryan struck out the first three DK&Ms to approach the plate — and what appeared to be a real rout started the bottom of the first inning when the first three AA&COETTS were walked. DK&M did a fast shuffle and brought in a new pitcher (imported from New York) who was able to hold our gals to one run. Penelope's no-hitter faded in the top of the fourth when DK&M managed to get one run to bring the score to 4 to 1. Superstars of the AA&COETTS were Ann Scott and Joyce Konst who both banged out triples; Tim Cooper's wife, Susan, who made an unbelievable catch at third base; and first baseperson, Betty Thomas, who never left the bag as she made countless outs there.

To insure fairness, officiating was divided — Larry Earman served as home plate umpire for the first 3½ innings, and then switched places with DK&M's first base umpire for the remainder of the game. Our gals won the coin toss and were the home team — so the punishment only lasted 6½ innings. Coaches for the team were Jerry VonDeylen, Tom Simpson, and Penelope's husband, Jim Bryan. Team and coaching staff looked quite professional in their red jerseys which were emblazoned with white AA&COETTS across the front.

Spectators and teams enjoyed after-game refreshments in German Village.

Peggy Bellows has been appointed to the Executive Committee of the March of Dimes Central Ohio Chapter.

Carlyle Livingston has replaced Burt Carlson on the International Financial Management Committee of the Columbus Chamber of Commerce.

The new partner and managers in the office hosted refreshments and hors d'oeuvres for the staff on September 2. The festive occasion was dampened by the knowledge that Burt Carlson, our new Tax partner, would soon be transferring to the Detroit office.

The partner/manager group and their wives feted Burt and Carole Carlson at a farewell dinner at the Brookside Country Club on October 26.

Lynn Reese has been elected vice-president of Northern Regions of International Toastmistress Clubs.

Karen Thrush has been elected to the Board of Directors of the Columbus Chapter, National Secretaries Assn.

COPENHAGEN

On August 30 the Copenhagen office held their annual dinner dance at the Trouville Hotel located on the seacoast north of Copenhagen. The party started at sunset with cocktails on the terrace overlooking the sea. After dinner there was dancing until the early morning. As most people stayed overnight at the hotel, some took advantage of the good weather the next day by going swimming in the sea. Those who arrived in the early afternoon participated in a group obstacle race through the surrounding woods. Winners as well as losers enjoyed the rewards of the competition.

This year our office party was a very special occasion since John Andersen would become our first Danish partner on September 1. We also had an opportunity to say goodbye to Kevin Lavery, our A/S partner who had been with our office for almost three years and would be returning to the London office.

DALLAS/FORT WORTH

AA&Co.'s fighting Orange and Red Teams in the Accountants' League went down in defeat in the first round of the 1975 play-off action. 1975 marked the Orange Team's eighth straight year to make the play-offs and their earliest elimination ever. The Red Team was a new league entry in 1975 but won their last three games in a clutch performance to gain the play-offs. After the season's end, both teams
